REC ESTABLISHES NEW DIVISION AND WELCOMES NEW BROKER TO BUYER/TENANT REP TEAM IN CHICAGO

BARRINGTON, IL – October 4, 2016 – REC President and Managing Broker, James A. Hopkins, proudly announces new and invigorating changes within his 40 year young commercial real estate firm.

From the company's first office location in the Loop in 1977, Real Estate Consultants has worked steadfastly to provide a full range of commercial real estate services and on behalf of those parties which the company represented, has negotiated countless numbers of deals in every size, at every price, in locations throughout the U.S.

Combining the astute instincts of a 'commercial real estate warrior' to a successful buyer/tenant rep concept in place in Denver since 2010, Hopkins and his management team are very excited about the expansion of their Chicago-based company to include a new Buyer & Tenant Representation Division.

REC's Buyer/Tenant reps provide expert buyer and tenant representative services to businesses and real estate investment firms throughout the Chicagoland and the Midwest, with a sole focus on sellers or landlords, resulting in a cleaner approach to commercial real estate acquisitions and void of any conflicts of interest. With this model, buyers and tenants can rest assured that the only objective is to find the real estate the client wants to purchase or lease and expertly negotiate the best terms possible on their behalf, all the while dedicated to serving the clients needs with unbiased advice and expertise.
